

Lucien Champenois

June 14, 1914 - April 5, 2010

Lucien H. Champenois, 95, of Corsicana passed away April 5, 2010. He was born June 14, 1914 in Hattiesburg, Mississippi to Dr Fern and Jessie Champenois. He is preceded in death by his wife, Bonnie A. Warne Champenois. He is survived by his children, L. Hal Champenois Jr of Corsicana, Bonnie Champenois English of Winsted Conn., Mary Champenois Evans of Coppel; grandchildren, Michelle Champenois Rethage, Bonnie Catherine Krasinski, Tess Krasinski, Barry Evans Jr. and Erin Evans; great grandchild, Lily Rethage, niece Jessica Germany, and nephew C.C. Germany Jr.

Tribute Wall

“ Lucien Champenois

October 08, 2023 at 12:04 PM

“ Lucien Champenois

April 05, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ My father took our family over to see Hal, Wanda and their children in the late 1960's. We lived in North Richland Hills, Texas (Ft. Worth), back tne and got to se our cousins only once, as far as I remember. We were thrilled to run into other Champenois, sicne there are few of us in the United States, versus those in France.

We liked Hal, Wanda and their children, and wondered why we didn't go back over there to see them in Irving. Well, life goes on and some of us are still here. Perhaps we can renew our acquaintances? My nickname back then was Bud.

My sibilings were John, Cece (Cecilia Marie), and Donny. John, my brother died back in Houston, Texas, October of 2003. Cece lives in Pensacola, Donny in Provo, Utah, and I am in Rancho Cucamonga, California.

We are sorry for your loss, but Hal had a very long life and is finally with his beloved Wanda.

God bless your families,

Cecil

Cecil Tolbert Champenois, Jr. - April 05, 2010 at 12:00 AM

WF

“ I have lots of good memories of Uncle Hal, Aunt Bonnie and my cousins, especially the Christmas we spent with you in Augusta. Little Hal was just learning to walk. When I got out of the Air Force I stopped in Irving to visit and Little Hal had just gotten a driver's license. Uncle Hal and Aunt Bonnie bought me my favorite cowboy shirt. I wore it till the snaps came off. May God bless you with the peace that passeth understanding and may you be filled with warm and wonderful memories. Love to all.

Wayne & Jerri Fox - April 05, 2010 at 12:00 AM

AR

“ Hal, I am so sorry for your loss. Just from the short time you were in class it was evident how much your dad meant to you. His Alzheimer's is gone now and his mind is once again working perfectly. I will keep you and your family in my prayers as you go through this difficult time.

Alicia Rogers - April 05, 2010 at 12:00 AM