“ Lynda and I have been in and out of each others lives since childhood. We met on Mr. Riley's school bus at age 12. We attended school together, after graduation we lived together in Dallas, had children around the same age, partied together as single moms and had many adventures.

Subsequently I moved from Corsicana and years went by without us seeing each other. Ten years ago I moved back to Corsicana and ran into Lynda in Wal-Mart (yes, Wal-mart. Where else are you going to run into anyone in Corsicana??). Our friendship was immediately renewed. It picked up like we had never been apart and as if we had spoken yesterday.

Lynda was an optimistic person full of energy and happiness. She loved a good Western novel, good food (which she could cook) and a great garage sale.

I will miss her tremendously. May she rest in peace. It was my good fortune knowing her. Love, Billie

Lynda was a big influence in my first 12 years of life. As my cousin she watched over me and included me in everything the older cousins were doing when we went down home. Car rides, horseback riding and anything else that was going on she made sure I was included and protected. There wasn't a weekend that we didn't spend time together and in the summers Lynda would come to my home for a week and I to her home. It was a time of great joy and happiness. I loved her and pray for all of us that loved her to find comfort in the fact she is waiting for us and I know she continues to watch over me from heaven. RIP beautiful soul.

*Love you cousin,
