

Lynn Bottoms

January 10, 1949 - July 17, 2023

Bobby Lynn Bottoms, known as Lynn, Daddy or Pawpaw, too many. Lynn was born January 10, 1949, to Vincent Bottoms and Jennie (White) Bottoms in Navarro, Texas. He was called home to be with his Savior and family and friends in heaven on July 17, 2023, at home surrounded by his loved ones. Lynn married his high school sweetheart Karen Dubose on July 26th, 1969. They were one week shy of celebrating 54 years of marriage. Lynn graduated Mildred High School in 1967 where he excelled in sports playing quarterback and middle linebacker. He also won district in pole vault as he liked to tell. After high school, he attended Navarro College and later Texas A&M University, but due to his dad falling ill, he came home to work and help take care of his dad. He started a partnership with Jodie Farmer that began when he was still a senior in high school. B & F cattle is still operating until his death, that unique partnership of 56 years led to a prosperous cattle operation, owning of 2 livestock auction barns (Navarro County Livestock and Palestine Livestock) and Hat Brand Rodeo Company. Hat Brand Rodeo Company produced a winter series in Corsicana that spanned for over 30 years. Before his rodeo production years, he picked up rodeos for about 20 years. He was blessed to work along with Nolan Henderson at many finals as well as Glen Smith before that. His rodeo life made many lifelong friends all over the United States. In his later years nothing made him happier than seeing friends and family fellowshiping and eating his food. If you never ate a fried rib, porkchop, steak, fish, or calf fries cooked by Pawpaw, you don't know what you missed.

Lynn is preceded in death by his parents Vincent and Jennie, sister Annie Joyce (Dot) Hodge, brother-in-law Jay Hodge.

He is survived by his wife Karen, son Jason and wife Darla, daughter Amy Hill and significant other Mark Scott.
