“ Dearest McCary Family,

Tom and I are so very sorry for your loss. Many special memories of each of you are very close to our heart and in every one of those memories your love and devotion to family is so evident. You collectively are such great people with such wonderful values. This doesn't happen by chance. It comes from a devoted Mom and Dad teaching you the truly important things in life. Your father is a wonderful man and your Mom is wonderful as well. That will never change even in death.

I know you are all sad with your father's passing but we pray you will remember the special times and the wonderful memories you share. May they lift you up in this time of sadness. Our prayers for comfort are constant and our offer of help stands always. May God hold you a little closer and comfort you during these times.

Our family extends our profound and deepest sympathy to yours at your loss.

Sincerely,

Tom and Beverly Herrin and Family
