

Lynn Thompson

December 3, 1942 - September 6, 2009

Lynn Thompson, 66, died on September 6, 2009 surrounded by his family, at his home in Duncanville, Texas, after a brief battle with cancer. Mr. Thompson was born on December 3, 1942, in Corsicana, Texas, to Floyd and Edna Thompson. He was the youngest of three, known for his streak of stubborn independence. And according to his sister was, in fact, "Mama's favorite". In 1961, he married his high school sweetheart, Nikki McCollum, after sweeping her off her feet in his snow cone truck; later moving her to Dallas, Texas. In 1965, he joined the United States Air Force during which time he had his first child, Stacey, in 1967. When his service was honorably completed in 1969, he moved back to Dallas, with his young family; completing it in 1972, with the birth of his son, Ronald. Mr. Thompson finally settled in Duncanville, Texas, in 1975, where he eventually retired and garnered the reputation as Defender of the Neighborhood against stray dogs, illegally parked cars, and all things untoward on Katherine Court. Retaining his reputation for stubborn independence, he was also known to soften when showing his devotion to his family and beloved pets. He is warmly remembered for his uncanny ability to fix all things mechanical, his meticulous yard, and canning some pretty mean jellies. He is survived by his wife, Nikki McCollum-Thompson, of Duncanville; his daughter, Stacey Thompson, of Dallas; his son Ronald Thompson, of Duncanville; and his sister Elizabeth Sullivan, of Houston. He is also survived by several nieces, nephews, and many friends who will dearly miss him. Visitation will be 6-8pm Tuesday September 8, 2009 at Griffin-Roughton

Funeral Home. Services will be graveside 10am Wednesday September 9, 2009 at Hamilton-Beeman Cemetery with Bro. Bill Honea officiating.

Tribute Wall

“ Lynn Thompson

October 08, 2023 at 12:04 PM

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to the Thompson family. Even though it has been so long since i have seen any one please let me know if there is anything I can do.For a short time in my life your family was like a second family for me. Stacey I am just a phone call away and will be there for you in any way I can.

Stacey Wells Solano - September 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Nikki...so sorry to hear about Lynn, I've often wondered where you two got off to. So sad to be writing you like this, Lynn was always easy going, well thought of person by everyone. I know you will miss him....Gene Lewis

Gene Lewis - September 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with your family through this rough time. Stay strong and know he will always be with you in your heart and in your memories. We love y'all!

Heather & Mick Thompson - September 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

RK

“ I'm sorry to read of the loss of Lynn. It seems like only the day before yesterday that Lynn, Rudy Norwood, Johnny Harper, David Moore and I were running the streets of Corsicana throwing water balloons...all having spent that Sunday morning in church. Time flies. What a nice, simple world we grew up in.

Ron King - September 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

SW

“ Stacey and family, so very sorry for your loss.

Scott Whitson - September 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

BC

“ My condolences to the entire Thompson family. I spent many happy times at your house on 18th with my best friend, Elizabeth, and I have great memories of those days at Memorial Baptist. Lynn was always "little brother" and he managed to stay pretty much out of our business. I am sorry for the loss of such an interesting person as he grew up to be as described in his colorful obituary. I loved his mother and daddy very much too. Elizabeth, I have lost contact with you but would like to get back in touch and so would your classmates of 57.

Beverly

Beverly Anderson Cook-Glass - September 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

CA

“ Where do I began! He will always be my favorite Uncle. I remember when I was a kid, Aunt Nikki would holler to Granny to make me leave her & Uncle Lynn alone. They said I pestered them. I can't imagine!! Uncle Lynn took me to my 1st pro baseball game & Aunt Nikki got all the autographs for me. Then there was "Charlie". Uncle Lynn fell in love with this puppy. From then on out "Charlie" was his!!! Uncle Lynn will be missed by me very much. He always made me feel @ home even if he did run to his pink room. Didn't matter to me though. I would just load up on the couch & watch game shows with him. Anyway, he can now watch game shows all day long. I will miss you dearly but we will all be together again one day!!! Love ya forever !!

Cindy andrews - September 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

CS

“ Lynn,
We will miss you, Peanut and Brewster always loved to come and see you. Peanut would start whinning and dancing in the front seat just before we got to your house and Brewster with his head hung out the car window. We loved our Mr. Lynn. My you now rest in comfort.

Cindy Sawyer - September 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

GH

“ Nikki, May God be with you & your family in this sad time. You will be in my prayers. Sounds like Lynn was a really neat guy!! Love, Geline Hargrove

Geline Hargrove - September 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

JC

“ Dear Nikki... Even from the other side of the world, I am saddened to hear of Lynn's death. He was such a character, and I loved the details in his obituary about his being the Defender of the Neighborhood and his romantic wooing from his snow cone truck. Lynn will be missed by all whose lives he touched, even from almost 50 years distant. My memories of him are still clear. The world is poorer for the loss of such a good man. We will all miss him. Love, Joanne

Joanne West Cornish - September 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

WG

“ From Travis Elementary School to Corsicana High School. I can remember Lynn as a steady, dependable quality individual. He will be missed. We both married our highschool sweethearts in 1961 and Anita and I just celebrated our 48th too. May GOD bless and keep you and all of your family.

W.R. (Dub) Garlington - September 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

BS

“ To Nikki & family:
I am so sorry for your loss, and it saddens us all to lose another classmate. Our thoughts and prayers are with you all.

Betty Elrod Schwerin - September 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

LF

“ I am so sorry to hear about Lynn. It is just terrible to lose contact with special people until times of crisis. Please accept my condolences. I have such fond memories of you, Nikki. I wish you the best in these dark days.

Leona Armstrong Fluker - September 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM

LW

“ *Nikki & family,
I was so saddened to read of Lynn's passing. Please know that you will be in my thoughts today & in the days ahead. With deepest sympathy,*

Linda Norwood Wade - September 06, 2009 at 12:00 AM