My deepest sympathy to Manuel's family, the sorrow on earth is great but the celebration in Heaven is glorious.

Manuel was a kind-hearted giving man. So many times times, I lost count, he drove my mom to DFW so she could come to Seattle to see me. She loved him so much and my heart was touched when I looked up and saw him at her funeral in May. I know she must have greeted him at the Golden Gates and welcomed him home.
