“ We only were around this lovely lady a few times when she was with Tom. However, in this short time, she won our hearts with her delightful smile and positive outlook on life. She will be missed by all who knew her. God bless her family and friends.

“ I only met Marceline once, while I was working at the Sterling House here in Corsicana. I used to sell LTC Insurance and she had a policy with a company which I worked for, so she brought it to SH and I called for her and got all sorts of information she wasn't clear on. During that time she told me of her life with her husband running Roy's back in the day. Very smart, lovely person. I am sure she will be missed! I do not know if she ever had to use the LTC policy, but if she did, I am sure it was a big help! My thoughts are with her family.

“Mrs. Ballard was an angel here on earth; I have spent many a happy hour in her home, and when we ran into each other elsewhere in the city, it was like a mini family reunion!! I will always cherish the memories of her friendship, and know that she lives on in the hearts of her children and those like me who loved her dearly! Rest in peace, Mrs. Ballard, I'll continue to look after Kay for you!!

*Much love,
Rowena*
