“ When I became homeless and had no where to go, Mrs. Bonner offered my family to allow me to live with her and finish school. Although I decided not to and make it on my own at the age of 16, I will never forget her kind offer. I had hoped to find her prior to her death and tell her how grateful I was. To her family, I am sorry for your loss, but want to you know, that she will forever remain in my memories as the most wonderful teacher I ever had. My prayers go out to you. Suzanne Hill

“ May you find comfort in the memories that are yours to cherish always, and strength in the companionship of those who share your loss.... I have learned never to underestimate the healing power we all have. It is always there to be used for the highest good. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. (Matthew 5:4) May it be a source of inner strength to know that there's a loving God watching over you, and that, throughout this time of need, He'll stay close by your side. I have fought the fine fight, I have run the course to the finish, I have observed the faith.-2Timothy 4:7. As for me, I will lie down that I may sleep; I shall certainly awake, for Jehovah himself keeps supporting me. -Psalms 3:5
