“ Dearest Schultz Cousins,

Without a doubt, God took another one of the "good ones". Life goes on but it sure is hard after losing a loved one, especially your "mother".

I remember like it was yesterday, we would load up in the car and come to visit. Remember all the fishing and the good times. Your parents and mine were "from the old school", you get out of life what you put into it. They put a lot into their seemingly short lives. No matter how old one gets, it seems like he/she was not with us as long as we wished they were.

It must have been a glorious "reunion" when your Daddy, and my Mama and Daddy met your Mama at Heavens Gates. You know they were hugging and reminiscing. Just think Sue, now she is holding your DEAR LITTLE ONES as my mama is holding MY BABY and SUSIES' BABY . Those four little boys are now spending eternity with their grand and great-grandmothers.

Mama and Margie Faye and Ethel are finally together again. I bet they are really having a good time. Granny is there too, just let one of them get out of line and she will give them what for.

You know there has to be some "laughs"

*because we just can't cry all of the time.
The crying, the hurt, the pain, the loss will linger and fade somewhat--but the memories and our parents love will last forever. Keep the faith and we will all be together again someday.*

*I hope my words will help some. Words never seem to help at the time of loss, but they can be comforting in our time
of need.*

GOD BLESS YOU ALL AND MAY OUR FAMILIES STAY IN TOUCH.

LOVE, YOUR COUSIN DIAN
