

Marguerite Gorman

November 27, 1917 - March 28, 2017

Marguerite McMullan Gorman, age 99 of Corsicana "left us" to join her Lord and Savior on Tuesday, March 28, 2017.

Marguerite was born on November 27, 1917 to AD (Dave) and Carrie McCord McMullan of Tupelo, Texas.

Marguerite married Stanley F. Gorman, June 6, 1937. Together they raised their family of one son and three daughters.

Marguerite will always be remembered for her love of caring for others. She loved the Lord and she loved her family. She made sure her family was well cared for always. She not only sewed most of the clothes for her three daughters as they were growing up but also their wedding dresses. She loved cooking and baking for others. Her hospitality was enjoyed by all who entered. Nieces and nephews and grandchildren continue to recount the wonderful experiences with their Aunt Marguerite (Grandmother) and Uncle Stanley (Granddaddy). She created many beautiful special occasion cakes for friends and family and made sure they were safely delivered as far away as Little Rock, AR. Tea cakes and angel food cakes were love gifts to countless family members and friends for many years. She enjoyed crocheting not only as a pass time but as a source of gifts for others. In her eighties she rekindled her artistic talents by joining oil painting classes.

Marguerite was a faithful member of North Beaton Church of Christ. Going to church and Bible study was an important part of her life. Even into her nineties she made sure her friends were also able to attend by giving them a ride.

Marguerite was preceded in death by her husband Stanley Gorman; parents, Dave and Carrie McMullan; half sister, Adalyn McMullan Wood; three brothers, Randal, AD and Tom McMullan; sister Catherine (Kitty) Norwood; daughter in law Nell Sloan Gorman and son in law, Phil Woehleke.

Marguerite is survived by her son , Stanley Mac Gorman and Gay of Lampassas; daughters Margie and Ted Taylor and Debra Gorman of Corsicana; Melissa Woehleke of Cypress; two sisters Elizabeth Smith of Liberty and Sybil Killough of Charlotte, NC; nine grandchildren, Jan and BB Holden of San Angelo, Stanley Jr. and Linda Gorman of Waller, Brett and Breck Gorman of Shallowater, Stacie Carroll and Ben Eisenbise of Roswell, NM, Coy and Tonya Harry of Nacogdoches, Jenni and Jason Petty of Dallas, Carrie Gorman of Lufkin, Teddy and Keri Taylor of Lucas, Jessica and Brian Esquivel of Mill Valley, CA; twenty great grandchildren and thirteen great great grandchildren and many nieces, nephews and cousins.

“Marguerite was my Mother's best friend. She was an integral part of the Curington family for as long as I can remember. At every family birthday, wedding, etc. she was there with a cake. She stepped in and saved my pathetic homemaking projects more than once. I have so many fond memories of her that I could never list them all. There is one, however, I would like to share. When my brother Phil was dying of cancer at the age of 41, he made several costly trips for treatment. Before his last journey he received a card from Marguerite with a $100 in it to help with his expenses. He broke down and cried saying "She is an Angel. She is a widow, giving of her means to help me." There is no one who gave more to so many. Marguerite was truly a servant of God. She served so many in her quiet, kind, unassuming way. Phil was right. She was an angel.

“ Your Marguerite was the sweetest, most thoughtful person ever. Once years ago, Susan brought her and sister Liz up to see us in North Arkansas. What fun we had eating, touring, playing games. Those two worked making pot holders every spare minute--always busy. Before leaving, they presented them to us as a hostess gift. It was a total surprise and a perfect example of their generous, loving nature.

We were blessed to know Marguerite and share her joy over many years.

With love and sympathy to her amazing family,

Mike & Julie Williamson
