“ May those beautiful yesterdays always remain in your heart, and your sorrow gently fade away. May you find strength in your faith, comfort in God's love, and peace in knowing your friends are praying for you. It will be the little things that you will remember the quiet moments, the smiles, the laughter. And although it may seem hard right now, it will be the memory of these little things that help to push away the pain and bring the smiles back again. I have fought the fine fight, I have run the course to the finish, I have observed the faith. -2Timothy 4:7. As for me, I will lie down that I may sleep; I shall certainly awake, for Jehovah himself keeps supporting me. -Psalms 3:5

“ Carol and family: My heart goes out to you. My memory is meeting your mother when I was with mine at Walmart's. She seemed delightful - and would have probably been someone my mother would have befriended. Even my mom said that at the time.

“ Marian Hayes was a wonderful Christian woman that would help anyone. She loved life and her family. I went to Northside with Mrs. Hayes for a number of years from 1950 until 1968. She lived down the road from us and Carol Ann spent many hours with our family. I am very sorry to have just found out about her passing.
