“ After a nasty fall, my mother, Genell Ponder, came to Twilight Home. She was moved into the room of beautiful "Joy". We loved visiting and laughing with Joy. She was so much fun and she was a blessing because she watched out for mom. I loved seeing how much she enjoyed her art work.

We engaged in deep conversations regarding our faith in the Lord and just how good God is. I am sorry for your loss. She was a sweet, special, and beautifully vivacious lady. May God comfort your family as only He can.

Blessings,

Cynthia (Ponder) Pope
