“ Richard and family,

There are no words that can truly ease the pain of a sudden loss like this but if caring thoughts can help, they are with you there right now.

“ Richard and family...I am so very sorry to hear of your loss. I know how devastated you all are. I lost my 33 year old son in 2006 and I know the deep feeling of helplessness you have. You will all be in my prayers for the strength needed to make it thru the coming days and months. If ever I can help with anything at all, please let me know, other wise, my thoughts and prayers are yours...Linda

“ I am so sorry that I will not be able to attend Marilyn's funeral service. We are on vacation in Colorado and will not return until approx. August 26. I have known Marilyn in a number of ways. She was my oldest daughter's teacher, a co-worker, and a friend. I love to hear her talk about her children and grandchildren. She was so proud of all of you. She loved her students and was a good friend to her co-workers. She will be greatly missed. Again I am sorry I can't attend, but your family is in my prayers.

“ Mrs. Smith, You always encouraged me to do my best and even though you were a tough teacher, I always think about the values you taught me. But I do have a confession to make.. (I can just picture that look that you did @ school when you caught us doing wrong or being silly) Senior year 1999. When we had to read To Kill a Mockingbird, we had to read out loud while you were grading our papers, we would skip pages in the book and we would make up our own story lines.. Miach was the worst one! :D Mrs. Smith you were a great teacher and you enjoyed teaching, even though I never had the chance to see you after grad., your words of wisdom I always remembered and followed them. God Bless you and your family

“ My dear friend Marilyn is now rejoicing with the Angels in Heaven! Dear Lord, comfort those of us she had to leave behind--her entire family, mulitude of friends, hundreds of former students (many of whom considered her as "mother"), many church/community members, and numerous others she cared for unconditionally...someday we will fellowship with her again, this time in her heavenly home...Amen.
