“ I have known Mario for many, many years as he was my grade school teacher in Mexico. I can remember many good times as he tried to cram knowledge into my hard head. His mother was a wonderful woman and it's nice to know they are together again. I know this is a painful time for you all as you will miss your father, grandfather and our friend. Mario was famous for helping all you had to do was ask. He was a great salesperson. He talked us it buying 6 cars from him over the years but he always made it a pleasant experience. He never failed to ask about any members of your family. He had a great memory for names of each family member. He will be missed. We know God is holding you in his loving hands and will help lessen your pain. It never goes away but it will lessen. Praying for you all. Carlos and Tama Zuniga, Valentin and Melody Mosqueda with children Carlos, Emily and Adriana.
