Margie worked for over 50 years as a dog groomer, which she enjoyed very much. She had a passion for animals and was able to own a dog grooming business for several years. Crafting was another passion of hers. Throughout her life, she attended several craft shows and fairs when she was able to. Even the week before her death, she was still learning how to make new fall decorations and excited to show them off to her family! She will be remembered by friends and family for her love of “pretties”. She loved anything that sparkled and would collect things that she thought were beautiful. She loved her treasures. Nature and being outdoors was also a love of hers. She was a member of the Mertens First Baptist Church, which she thoroughly enjoyed being a part of. Her love for the Lord was evident. Family was her most important treasure of all. Karen was the apple of her eye. They had an unbreakable bond. Margie was always so proud of her and so proud of her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.
