“ Mark is my baby brother and I miss him everyday. He was the sweetest man with a huge heart and he loved everyone and everything. He never complained or talked bad about anything or anyone and he always had a smile on his face. He was a great son, brother, father, and grandfather. He lived his life pleasing others. He loved animals and he loved working for Robert Horvath leveling and moving houses. He was a very quiet man and never talked much, but he wore his heart on his sleeve for everyone to see. He was the youngest of five children. He passed very suddenly and unexpectedly. It has been very difficult to let him go but we know he is living out eternity in heaven which eases the pain we are feeling. We carry him with us everyday as long as we live in our hearts and with our memories of him. We love you Mark and miss you more than you can imagine. Every time I go to see mom and dad I expect to see you sitting there on the porch. Again we love you!!!!
