“ Baby Sister, Charles Herman, & Stephanie,

So sorry we can't come in for Martha's funeral. I would love to see you all.

It is at times like this that we realize how fast time passes. To think that we have been friends, neighbors and feels like family for so many years. To think that over 42 years ago, I was Martha's first customer on that Saturday morning, she recombed my hair...the day Jerry and I eloped, Nov 19, 1966. To think that I and my 'grand daughter' (3 years old then) visited her in the 'nursing home' some 40 years later in Sulphur Springs. While visiting her in Fairfield, she commented on how much Landry talked so much that day.

I loved her very much. She approved of Jerry...he's a Carter. I love you all too, and would loved to meet your kids and grandkids. I will be praying for you'll Tuesday.

*Love,
Lucille*
