“ *Frances and family,
It is truly hard to loose a loved one suddenly; but we are told that a believer in christ is "absent from the body and present with the Lord". Having said that I know he would want his loved ones to trust God's promises:
Confort for your sorrow, Courage for each day, Strength to face this journey, HIS word to light the way, HIS peace to fill your heart although you may not understand; and HIS love to hold you gently in the hollow of HIS hand.
If there is any thing we can do to lighten the burden or to make things a little easier just give us a call. we are in the phone book.
We will certainly keep you (all) in our prayers and thoughts.

“ My ex-husband and I rented a duplex from Mr. Townley a long time ago. It was located down on South 15th St. where AW Trash Service is now. He was always a very nice man and very helpful. I have seen him various times through the years and he was always smiling and friendly. I was a guest at Unity when I got to hear him sing. It was a lovely talent and a joy for all who heard him "raising his voice to the Lord!" I'm sure the family will sorely miss him. We are praying for your time of sorrow to be swift because he is singing in the heavenly choir now! God Bless you all.

“ Hello Danny, Larry & Melissa and Family,

It is with great sorrow that I write this note. The passing of a parent is one of the hardest parts of life. We know that they are in God hands now but it still breaks our hearts. Try to remember the good time that you had with your dad and that will help with the healing. Time heal us all and to lose not only you Dad but just having lost your Grandmother hits you twice as hard. I will pray for you that God heals your broken hearts and help you handle this loss. I know it has been a long time since we seen each other but I do thing of you often and only want the best for you. God is the answer to all you question and he will answer them over time. Ask God to help you and he will. I send all my love to you and the family and know that God is with you. Take care Love you dearly Ken
