“ *Jack and family,
I remember precisely the day and time I first met Miss Margaret. It was at your home in Lubbock where Kelley and the three Jones sisters had dragged me to meet Kelley's 'Godparents'. Not knowing what to expect, I was somewhat anxious, however that was quickly dispelled. Miss Margaret turned out to be the most refined and gracious hostess one could ever imagine, but DESPITE that, she was warm, down-to- earth and sooo very welcoming. In fact, I felt she was almost too good to be true. Over the past twenty years she maintained that perfection, and I was fortunate to be able to make lots of wonderful memories with her and Jack, and other family members. I will always have a special place in my heart for that beautiful lady, and will try to remember to "Be Particular".*
