“ Mary was a very sweet lady and a hard worker in the church. She was always friendly. Her first husband Rev. Cronk and I had a good working relationship and supported me as choir director in a special way. It was good to see her in 2000 at the church's 100th anniversary. My prayers are with the family at this time. Sorry that I am unable to attend the service. Sincerely, Franklin

“ I knew Mary From Tenth Street Methodist Church in Taylor. Although it has been years I remember what a sweet lady she was.

“ Farewell for Now, Mary Nell Cronk

*A social woman, full of energy and love,
Could handle any situation-when push came to shove.
She really did, when she said ?I do,?
All around, knew her word was true.*

*Willing to lend a hand,
Ready to listen and to understand.
Mother, friend, sister, wife,
Kind and gentle, avoiding strife.*

*Her family, she clearly held very dear,
Ever thrilled just to have them each member near.
Never leaving a single person out,
She really knew what kinship was all about.*

*Successful, proper, talented, skilled,
Good-hearted, charitable, and strong-willed.
Faithful, loyal, and quite humble,
Wanting to prevent others from a stumble.*

*Grandmother, aunt, cousin, niece,
Lovely woman, rest in peace.
You would not wish this to be a time of sorrow,
For we shall all meet again on one tomorrow.*

*With love, reverence and thanks, I say,
You will be missed ?til our next meeting day.*
