“ Mary was a great friend to my mother Mildred Pritchett. They were best buddies at Heritage Oaks West.

Carol Pritchett - May 30, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ Mary always had a smile on her face, she & my Mother (Mildred Pritchett) spent many hours walking & visiting at Heritage Oaks West. She loved it when I would bring them a Dr Pepper & Chocolate Candy. Mary would always say, there is nothing better than chocolate.

“ To Mary's Family,
So sorry to hear of your lost. Mary was such a sweet lady. And I know you will miss her greatly. I remember all the fun times we had at your house and all the games we played at our house in Brownfield.
Love to each of you and May the Lord Bless you and keep you in His care.

“ Katherine's mother and my mother were sisters. So sorry to hear of her death, but she was ill a very long time. Do you remember coming to our home in Mineral Wells with your Mother when you were doing bike trails? It has been a long time. I think you all ate dinner with us. Praying for comfort for the family during this time of sorrow.

*Love to the family,
