“ Mary Guerra was a beautiful lady who was a dear friend and mentor to me.

Many people here knew her as a kind caregiver who provided selfless care to their parents and grandparents in the last stages of their lives. She provided peace and kindness over many years to countless people in our community. She leaves behind a positive impact and will be missed by so many people who knew and loved her.

For me she was both a friend and a mentor. I enjoyed spending time with her and cooking, including the green chicken spaghetti that she enjoyed. When I was new to Corsicana with a young son, she took us into her home and let us stay until I was able to find a home. She also mentored and encouraged me when I was beginning a career as a caregiver. She provided wisdom and encouragement as I grew as a caregiver myself.

Mary's passing leaves a sadness in our hearts, but we can be encouraged knowing that she will receive her reward with our Savior Jesus and we will someday be reunited with her in peace and joy.

Love Patricia 🙏
