“ To all the family I am sorry for your loss. I remember how good Mary was to all us teens at Winkler in the mid fifties playing with her kids and their cousins. The shade of the big oak in the front yard was quite a gathering place.

“ *What greater tribute than to know Mary loved the Lord, loved her family with a sacrificial love, and was loved in return. To me, she was a quiet, steadfast matriarch. Her actions were her words. All who had a relationship with her will dearly miss her. I send my heartfelt sympathies to all others who mourn for her.
Rest in peace my Aunt Mary. We will see you again.
Love,
"Debra Jane"*

“ To: My family

The days ahead may be rough and despairing and at times unbearable but to know that Grandma is home we should be at least thankful for that. The scriptures show us that we are here on this Earth but for a short time.

As for the days to come... we should remind ourselves of the blessings of each day and to remember why were are here... to honor Christ in all that we do. One day, all of us will die and I pray that each of you know Christ as your savior!

After many talks with Grandma, she and I discussed our relationships with Christ. I do believe (with all my heart) that Grandma has a new address called HEAVEN.

We should not be sorrowful in this time but joyful because she is feeling no pain, has no more tears and she finally has a separation from the sin of this world. I can only imagine what her eyes are seeing on this day!

Love

“ I was so heartbroken to hear of Mary's death this morning. She was such a precious person. I always called her "meaness". However anyone that knew her knew she was not at all mean. She had so much spirit and was such a fun lady to joke with. She will certainly be missed by her family and her many friends. I have no doubt that Mary is in Heaven now and waiting for us all to join her someday. My condolences go out to her family because I know how much they loved her.
