“ *Aunt Frances was a special lady. The times we had when we were all still at home, Cousins galore. Times were hard but the love of the family kept us all together. She endured a lot of hardships with her immediate family's health but she was a strong lady and always gave encouraging words. Love you Aunt Frances

“ I remember living right down the road from my Aunt Francis and going down to play with my cousins. Life was hard even then, but those memories were sweet. My aunt was a sweet, unselfish, hard-working and kind woman. I love you, fly high. ❤️❤️❤️ Deb

“ Aunt Frances was a warm, loving lady who loved all her family and extended family with her whole heart. She and Billy came to Pasadena with mom and dad when my family was hurting. She was a strong christian and knew God was in control. She loved Mary deeply. She will be missed by many.
