“ I feel so bad! We had no idea Ms. MaryLee had passed. I just happened to be scanning obits and saw this one. I am just devastated. She was such a nice lady and we feel so bad we were so wrapped up in our own lives that we missed the passing of your family member. Know she's with Mr. Don and she is out of pain, happy to again be at his side. Please forgive us for seeming to be so insensitive. We did care for her and hope her passing was peaceful. If we can be of any help at all, please contact us. We're just a stones throw away.

“ May you find comfort in the memories that are yours to cherish always, and strength in the companionship of those who share your loss.... I have learned never to underestimate the healing power we all have. It is always there to be used for the highest good. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. (Matthew 5:4) May it be a source of inner strength to know that there's a loving God watching over you, and that, throughout this time of need, He'll stay close by your side. I have fought the fine fight, I have run the course to the finish, I have observed the faith.-2Timothy 4:7. As for me, I will lie down that I may sleep; I shall certainly awake, for Jehovah himself keeps supporting me. -Psalms 3:5
