“I have never in my life seen Meagan without a smile on her beautiful face. She has changed the way I view life and will forever be a true inspiration. Watching her fight for the past few years has taught me to love deeper, laugh harder and cherish every waking moment. I will continue to think of Meagan when I feel life has gotten too hard and and remember her resilience. She will forever be loved by so many.

“ Precious friend and sister in Christ. This world is less giving, less encouraging and less joyful without this lovely gift of a lady. But heaven is rejoicing. Her suffering is over and her heavenly rewards will be many. We will see you soon honey. And our thoughts and prayers are with Jason, Jackson and the rest of your beloved family.

“ Jason; I am so sorry for your loss, my prayers and thoughts are with you and your family. She fought a long hard battle but God decided it was time to take her home to be by his side. Terry talked about you and your family all the time almost every day, he spoke of you this morning with tears in his eyes before he left the house. Meagan will never have to fight another battle again.
