

Melba "Butch" Bower

July 16, 1957 - January 18, 2021

Melba Lois Bower, Jr., better known as Butch, 63, passed away at Baylor Scott & White in Waxahachie, Texas on Monday, January 18, 2021. He had battled the Covid-19 virus with courage, dignity, and grace before being called home by God.

Butch was born on July 16, 1957 to Melba Bower, Sr. and Mary Eleanor (Green) Bower in Corsicana and was a lifelong member of the Corsicana community. Butch graduated from Corsicana High School in 1975 and later attended Navarro College and Lubbock Christian College which is now Lubbock Christian University.

He married Terry Bower in 1982 and they just reached their 39th Wedding Anniversary January 16, 2021.

Butch was a man of impeccable integrity and character. He dedicated his life to his family and work. He worked at least two jobs for the majority of his life. Those jobs included being an administrator at New Encounters Residential Treatment Center in Mildred, Texas and as a teaching assistant at Mildred Independent School District. He loved helping others and was a mentor to countless young men at New Encounters.

Butch never met a stranger and was always there to talk to you if you had a problem or was just needing someone to listen. He loved sports and his favorite past times included watching the Dallas Cowboys, Texas Rangers, Dallas Mavericks, cheering on the Texas Tech Red Raiders, and supporting the Mildred High School and Corsicana High School athletic programs.

Butch was a steadfast family man and was the best father and husband anyone could have hoped for. His passing was unexpected and heartbreaking to all that knew him. There will never be another Butch Bower and he will be deeply missed.

Butch is survived by his wife Terry (Willingham) Bower; father Melba Bower Sr.; mother Mary Eleanor Bower; sister Rexanne Thomas and husband Wade Thomas of Van, Texas; daughters Kristy Johnson and husband Chris Johnson of Farmers Branch, Texas; Cheryl Jennings and husband John Jennings of Rockport, Texas; Shelley Hill of Lubbock, Texas; son Gary Bower and wife Rebecca Esquivel of Lubbock, Texas; grandchildren Ethan, Elise, Elijah Medina of Farmers Branch, Texas; John-Eric and Catherine Jennings of Rockport, Texas; Jacey and Luke Hill of Lubbock, Texas; father-in-law Billy G. Willingham; mother-in-law Genell Willingham; brothers-in-law Tim Willingham of Colorado; Tony Willingham and wife Gay Willingham of Frisco, Texas; nephew Josh Willingham and wife Courtney Willingham of Carrollton, Texas; and niece Jordan Welch and husband Max Welch of Frisco, Texas.

Visitation will be held at Griffin-Roughton Funeral Home in Corsicana, Texas Friday, January 22nd from 6-8 pm and funeral services will be held at Griffin-Roughton Funeral Home Saturday, January 23rd at 11am. Burial will be at Oakwood Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to Mildred Independent School District where a memorial will be set up in honor of Butch.

“ Dear Melba, Eleanor, Gary , Terry, and all Butch's family, We are so very sorry for your sad loss. We have known and loved the Bower family so many years. We worshipped at Westside Church of Christ in the 1960's. I used to baby-sit Butch and then had the pleasure of having you, Gary, in 7th grade Language Arts. You are all in our prayers, Patty and Louis Williams

“ Butch was such a sweet guy in school and he carried his sweet personality into adulthood. Butch was a friend to so many and was there when needed. He loved sharing passages from the Bible and I will miss seeing them. He reminded us daily that God was there for us in the verses he shared. Prayers lifted for comfort, peace and strength for his family.

“ I moved to Corsicana at the beginning of my sophomore year in high school, and I still remember Butch as one of the most gracious and welcoming people I met when I was getting used to my new environment. His kindness and generous spirit are still fresh in my memory almost 50 years later. God bless your family Butch, and rest in peace.
