

Melton Ewing

March 3, 1944 - October 31, 2011

Melton "Bud" Eljuan Ewing passed from this life on Monday, October 31, 2011 at his residence in Kerens. Bud was born on March 3, 1944 in Blooming Grove to Lewis and Louetta Ewing of Dresden. He is preceded in death by his parents and by his only brother, Verlan Lewis Ewing. He is survived by a sister-in-law Anita Ewing of Dresden; nieces Amanda Green, Kimberly Lemmert and Valerie Andrews; nephew Ben Ewing; 2 great nieces and 6 great nephews. Bud was a simple man who took pleasure in simple things. He loved to be outdoors, to "go get a Coke," and to go to his job each day while he was able. We are comforted by the knowledge that he finally walks free and at peace with our Savior; and we are blessed to have had him in our lives, especially these last few months. We would like to thank the staff of Kerens Care Center for their kind and patient care of our brother-in-law and uncle in his last months. Visitation will be from 6-8 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 2, 2011 at Griffin-Roughton Funeral Home. Graveside services will be at Dresden Cemetery at 11 a.m. on Thursday, Nov. 3, 2011 with Bro. Grady Cashion officiating.

Tribute Wall

“ Melton Ewing

October 08, 2023 at 12:04 PM

“ The only one I see dopirpng really is Tyson Griffin. He hasn't been winning lately and he probably could use a reboost at the lighter division. Who knows maybe Urijah can go back to featherweight to redeem is lost, but that may be unlikely. I think the rest are comfortable fighting at the lightweight class, especially if they're on a winning streak. I would think Frankie Edgar would have to lost a couple fights, before he considers dopirpng a weight class. I could see if the above fighters were man handled, where it would be wise, but right now I think it is fine. It would be interesting to see who would drop and possibly fight Jose Aldo.

Danbi - October 31, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ I never knew Eljuan's whole name until his passing, nor did I ever remember to ask his family about his well-being throughout the years. He and I were early 1950's BG Elementary "special needs" students in the same grade. He could physically do so much I could not do--run, play outside at recess, walk up to the classroom blackboard, stand with chalk in his hand and draw--and I admired his cheerfulness and perserverance. And, now he, Verlan, and their mom and dad are together in Paradise, glorifying the Lord of all creation. God bless the memories of these two Ewing brothers, and thank you, Lord, for sharing their sunshiney personalities with us!

Carolyn Carroll-Vinson - October 31, 2011 at 12:00 AM