“ Michael, you were my first nephew. I never realized until now just how special that is. I saw you as a baby and as a teen and as an adult and as a proud "papa". Your two boys are very wonderful. I wish I could have been of more help to you in your problems, but I mostly didn't know about them because I lived so far away from you for so many years. I am so very happy I got to see you and Daemon at Devon's house when I was here at the end of May. I will miss you, but am proud to know you are with the Lord today.

“ *Brenda,
My heart goes out to you in this very sad and trying time in your life.
There are no words that can express how much I care and how much I'd love to take away some of your pain.
You and your family are in my thoughts, and my prayers today, tomorrow and always. If you need me, I am a FB message away at

Let your faith carry you, God will NEVER let you down, and he will you to a happier time, and remember him as he was in life-- God bless you.

“ Dear Patrick Family and Friends,
I am truly sorry for the loss of your dear loved one Michael. His obituary caught my eye because he was young, just 40 years old. Death is something that touches us all, and it's tragic. But especially when one is in the prime of their life, as was your dear Michael. What has given me comfort during difficult times such as these are the promises from God's word the Bible. (2Corinthians 1:3,4) I learned that our Heavenly Father has already made provisions to reunite us with our dead loved ones by means of a resurrection right here on earth in paradise conditions in peace, happiness, and perfect health. (John 5:28,29; Psalms 37:9-11,29; Isaiah 33:24) In fact, He has also promised to eradicate death forever and along with it any painful memories that we may have. (Isaiah 25:8; Isaiah 65:17) These promises can sustain us because they are from a trustworthy source. God is faithful and it is impossible for Him to lie. (Hebrews 6:18) We can have complete confidence that one day all His promises will be fulfilled. May these Bible promises make your present pain a little easier to bear. My deepest sympathy to you.
