“ In 1984 my young family and I were preparing to move to Corsicana, Texas to plant a new church and our first member was Mildred Mueller. We became fast friends with this lovely lady and eventually her husband Robert starting coming to the church as well. When we moved in 1991 Mildred and Robert were still faithfully attending Corsicana Christian Fellowship.

Mildred's memory will always be dear to me. She was such a nice person and so encouraging to myself and others in the congregation. I look forward to seeing her and Robert again in glory!

“ David and family so sorry I missed the visitation for Mildred. I didn't read the time until too late. My prayers are with you and your family. May God give you comfort and peace during this time.

Love,
Jaynie Johnston
