“ It was a shock to hear that Mo had passed on. I stopped at the store at least every other day and sometimes every day depending on what I needed. I have known Mo for a very long time, when he worked for Bills, when he was looking for other work he came to TWC. He was one of the nicest people that I have ever known. There is one thing that I would like to share with his family, he indeed loved every one of you, we talked about you a lot. It will never be the same without Mo at the store down the street. Know that he was very much respect and loved, he was one of a kind. I will miss our chats. If there is ever anything that I can do for the family, please contact me at the TWC here in Corsicana.

“ Jamshidi family,
I wish I could say or do something to make things easier for you, but I know there is nothing that can ease your pain. I want you to know that I am here praying for you and thinking about you. If there is anything I can ever do, you can always count on me!

“ I stopped in his store often to purchase gasoline or just buy a coke, and Mohammad was always kind to me. I only learned of his death today (December 15th, 2004).

Over the past 2 years, we had become friends. I will miss his humor, his sharing about his children, and his insights.

God bless his family.
