

Myrtle Blanche Stewart

August 21, 1928 - February 14, 2016

Myrtle Blanche Grounds Stewart passed away at her home in Corsicana on February 14, 2016. She was born in Buffalo on August 21, 1928 to Lynn and Osce Grounds. She attended schools in both Teague and Fairfield. She married Roy Stewart on November 20, 1948 and they made their home in Corsicana.

She is survived by her children, Badie and Paula Stewart of Corsicana and Glenn Stewart of Corsicana. She had eight loving grandchildren; Gannan Stewart, Drew Davis, Austin Stewart, Skye Stewart, Chloe Stewart, Walker Stewart, Ian Stewart and Rayne Stewart as well as two great grandsons, Dylan and M.J. She is also survived by her brother Pete Grounds of San Antonio and her sister Lynda Grounds of Fairfield. Also, numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her husband of 52 years, Roy Stewart, parents and brother Hillary Grounds.

Myrtle will be remembered for her love and devotion to her family and friends and nothing pleased her more than cooking for those she loved. She offered to all those she knew, food for the body through her deliciously prepared meals, and food for the soul with her words of council and listening ear. She loved children and had a special way with them. Her love for her sons and grandchildren was unmeasurable and her generosity to her church and community was without limits. She will be greatly missed by all.
