

Nancy Crum

July 22, 1918 - January 14, 2009

Nancy Lee Walker Crum passed from this life on January 14, 2009 at the home of her daughter and son-in-law in Corsicana, Texas. She was a long time resident of Brownsville Texas but had to move to Corsicana in 1993. She had a long career in The Brownsville Independent School District and the Brownsville Teacher's Credit Union as President. During those years she was awarded many honors both personal and professional for her honest, caring and proficient handling of the credit unions' members money. She is survived by her son Tom Crum of Brownsville, her daughter and son-in-law Lana and Lynn Berry of Corsicana, her son and daughter in-law and husband Carolyn and Gaynor Stiles of Houston. She had 33 grandchildren and great grandchildren that delighted her spirit and gave her joy to her last years. Her father and mother, Chester and Gertrude Walker were founding members of the Church of Christ in Brownsville. Mrs crum was a faithful member of the Price Road Church of Christ in Brownsville and the Church of Christ at Westhill in Corsicana. She was an Inspiration and true reflection of her Lord and Savior to all of her family and friends. She was a "worthy woman". In lieu of flowers please send memorials to: Christian Homes of Abilene Her family and friends will gather for a private memeorial services at a later date.

Tribute Wall

“ Nancy Crum

October 08, 2023 at 12:04 PM

“ Please accept our sincere sympathy. You were wonderful caring children and caregivers.

darwin and billie thomas - January 14, 2009 at 12:00 AM “ Nancy truly had a gentle spirit. She was a fine example of a Christian woman, always kind and thoughtful. She will be fondly remembered by many friends and family.

John & Sheryl Wallace - January 14, 2009 at 12:00 AM

“ Lynn and Lana, you Mom was so special and was a great woman. She was so caring and loved the Lord deeply. Lana you remind me so much of her. May God bless you during this time.

Wanda Horner - January 14, 2009 at 12:00 AM