“ Novil was like another grandfather to me, I just saw him back in September when he came to visit my grandmother and reminded me of how much fun they use to have, I will never forget the many Friday night hamburgers & 42 games we shared. My heart is sad but I know he with God now RIP Novil you will be missed!

“ Norvil was a beautiful human being! Some of my fondest childhood memories are of times spent at his & Lois's home. I will always be grateful that God placed him in my path. I am so very sorry that I couldn't be at his visitation or service, but please know that he is in my thoughts. My heart is with his family & loved ones. I know that he will be sorely missed by all who were fortunate enough to have known him.

“ Norvil along with his wife was two of the sweetest people anyone will ever meet. My husband thought so much of him and he went to be with the Lord 2010. I am sure he smiled real big when Norvil walked up to him in heaven. He will be missed but I am sure he is so happy and well in his new home. May God bless your family.

“ We will miss your smile and your sweet personality. So proud of to have gotten to call you my uncle. You are a great man in my eyes. I know "there's another meeting place somewhere in heaven, by the side of that river of life". Today you are at that "other meeting place" that is not Whataburger, with all the loved ones who have patiently waited for your arrival. Looking forward to that great reunion day when we will sit down by the river with you.

Love, your great neice,
Brenda

“ Dear Coker Family,

So very sorry for your loss. Mr. Coker was a fine man and a good neighbor to my family. He always had a great smile and a quick wit to always make a person feel at home anywhere. I hope the Lord comforts you and yours during this sad time.
