

Obal Holleman

January 23, 1918 - January 16, 2009

Obal Dean Holleman, affectionately know as Nanny, passed away January 16,2009 at Heritage Oaks Retirement Village in Corsicana. She was born January 23, 1918 to John and Cora (Langley) Ennis. Nanny was a seamstress for most of her life. She enjoyed her grandchildren and great grandchildren. She liked to sit on her front porch and watch the world go by. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband of 60 years, W.G. Holleman, her sons Tommy and Ronnie Webber, her daughter, Linda Perkins, and her granddaughter, Natalie Renae Perkins. She is survived by her granddaughter and husband, Jerry and Pam Glidewell of Eureka, her very special great-granddaughter, Lauren Glidewellof Eureka, her very special nieces Cleo Davis of Arlington and Vera Satterfield of Georgetown, her daughter in law, Pat Webber of Quitman, her grandsons and wives Ronnie Jr. and Shelia Webber and Shane and Lisa Webber of Quitman, and her granddaughter and husband, Michael and Debbie Gilpin of Quitman, numerous great-grandchildren, family, and friends. Nanny will always be remembered for her love and generosity. She had a rough last year after the loss of her husband and we are so thankful that she is now with her family in the presenceof her Savior. We also rest assured in the promise of Jesus that we will be with her again. A memorial service to celebrate her life will be held on January 25, 2009 at 1:00 PM at Petty's Chapel Baptist Church in Corsicana with Bro. Sonny Buie officiating. The family would like to thank Dr Kent Rogers, Heritage Oaks Retirement Village and to Family First Hospice for the kindness and love that they showed to her, especially in her last days.

Tribute Wall

“ Obal Holleman

October 08, 2023 at 12:04 PM

“ *Mrs. Holleman was my neighbor in Kerens for many years. I have missed her and Mr. Holleman both, as they were always good neighbors to me.
My prayers are with the family.*

Margie Holton - January 16, 2009 at 12:00 AM