

Odis Edwin Dyer

December 6, 1956 - September 19, 2025

Odis Edwin Dyer, 68, of Dallas, Texas, passed away peacefully on September 19, 2025. A beloved father, grandfather, brother, and friend, Odis will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him.

Born in Dallas on December 6, 1956, Odis was the son of Odis Dyer and Jessie and Janette Sutton. He proudly served his country in the United States Navy and later built a successful career as a project superintendent in construction, where his dedication and strong work ethic earned him the respect of many.

Odis was a man who cherished time with his family. He is survived by his two sons, Jeff Dyer and Jonathon Dyer; and his cherished grandchildren: Cameron Miller, Piper Dyer, Easton Dyer, Emma Onstott, Cade Onstott, Breelyn Dyer, Wyatt Dyer, and Brynna Dyer, as well as his new great-granddaughter, Sadie Miller. He also leaves behind his siblings, Sherry LeBlond, Johnny Sutton, and Joy Dyer.

Odis had a deep love for simple joys—playing dominoes with his family and friends, and cheering passionately for his beloved Dallas Cowboys every season...hoping they would actually win this year!

Odis will be remembered for his unwavering devotion to his family, his warm and welcoming spirit, and the legacy of love and laughter he leaves behind.

“ To the family, mom and I send our love and sympathy. There's not a day or memory of back home that Edwin and the family isn't in it. The weekend that makes me laugh is when Edwin was driving the boat and my dad was on the tub. Edwin swung dad really hard and dad let loose of the rope. It split dad's swim trunks. He came out of the water wearing a skirt. The whole bunch of us laughed. I'll always remember playing horse shoes and the many card game gatherings we had. The Suttons, Dyers, and Rows were tight and we all hung out every weekend for many years. We love yall so much. Teresa.
