“ I have many great childhood memories of Ona Mae. I remember fishing with her at the lake. I remember picking up buckets of pecans with her. I remember her and Mom and I all going to town for grocery shopping. I remember her baby sitting me and letting me win at the games we played. I remember her always having a gift for me at Christmas, and many times it was clothing she had sewed for me. Ona Mae made me feel like a loved family member. I feel thankful to have had her in my life.

“ Moose, I was so sorry to hear about Ona. I loved her very much, her sense of humor was the best. She loved you and your brother and talked about you both everytime we got together for a chat. She will be greatly missed. If you need anything, call me. "Blessed are those that mourn, for they shall be comforted." Matthew 5:4
