“ Pam the day I met you my first thought was boy she a firecracker. So full of energy and a smile. As I've gotten to know you we became friends. Everyone who knew you knew the love you had for Clinton. I'm happy you are with Jesus now but sad I want get to see you again until we are together in heaven. Anthony was so happy you came to see him when he was battling cancer. My heart hurts for your family. Until we meet again. Put on them wings and fly

“ Pam, I don't know what to say. I am so hurt that God called you home. As your Pastor I broke into a smile when you entered the chapel. I am so proud of the things God has taught you in the past couple years. He truly set you free! I guess I'll always watch the door thinking you will be off and come rushing in with a smile! We loved you so much! My prayers and heart goes out to your family, I know they are hurting so much right now!..... I'll always be honored that you called me your preacher!

“ My condolences to Pam's dad and kids. The world lost an amazing person. I won't say she lit up a room but by God you knew she was in there. And she probably made you smile. I worked with Pam at Braum's and Bill's. I was 19... Pam never sugar-coated how she thought I was messing up work or my life. She always tried to steer me right. I visited Braum's a bit after I had my daughter. Pam was always so happy to see us. I hate that we lost her in such a way. She will be missed!

“ First of all to Pamela's family our condolences and prayers for you in this tragic loss.

Pamela had a heart of gold. She was serious about her job & people. When I first met Pam at Bill's Fried Chicken on E Hwy 31 she was eager to please her customers. I became a regular every Friday & she knew what I wanted. That's the service you get back in the day. When Pam went to Braum's to work she was the same way. She would tell you "I haven't seen you in a while" she showed compassion for her customers. She will be deeply missed. RIP Pam. Love Single Believers Ministries
