

Patricia Lynell Weger

February 15, 1943 - August 23, 2024

Patricia Lynell Master (Pat) Bower Weger, 81 of Corsicana, passed away August 23, 2024 at her residence. Although Pat was born 15 February 1943 in Sparta, Wisconsin, she lived in Hubbard, Texas and Corsicana, Texas for most of her life and considered herself a true Texan.

Pat is preceded in death by her parents, Theo and Annie Bell Master of Hubbard, and Frank and Katherine Duke Chapman, her step grandparents, Henry and Ally Mae Jackson, and several uncles, aunts and cousins.

Pat loved music and shared this talent at the piano with her church's youth organization and sacrament services. The more she shared this talent, the more beautiful her playing became.

Pat was a proficient genealogist and blessed many lives by helping people track their genealogy. She worked for many years in the Genealogy Library at The Church of Latter Day Saints and continued to help from her home office until her death.

Pat's wonderful sense of humor brightened many lives on a daily basis.

She is survived by her husband, Michael Jeremy (Hans) Weger, children Dawn Theona Weger, Mark Alden Bower, Sean Edward Bower, Alison Husky and Gregory Nell Bower. Also survived by grandchildren, Johnathan Husky, Ryan Husky, Cheyenne Husky, several aunts and cousins.

She leaves behind her pampered and loved dogs, Suzanna, Michael, Daisey, and Missie. Pat had a special place in her heart for dogs and always had several as pets.

“ My heartfelt prayers go out to Pats family. She was a good friend and a good coworker at Liberty Mutual. She was lots of fun. Enjoyed going to movies and she was a smart lady that truly loved her family. She will be missed. I know someday I will see her again.
