“ Dear Ray, Susan, Timmy, and Family,

Patsy was a ray of sunshine and so glad her roots go deep with the Andrew generation of wonderful hard-working folks who loved and cared for their families. She was a trooper these last few years and memories of her wonderful laugh and character will live on forever..

May the Lord comfort you during this time in knowing she is no longer sick and is in a better place with her Lord. It was great to visit with her these last several years as I visited my dad at Epic Rehabilitation Center and she loved to talk about her family and show pictures. What a legacy Patsy leaves to her family and friends! Prayers being lifted up during this season of time.

*Sincerely,
Ronald, Ricky, Clyde Smith and Family*

“ So sorry to hear about Miss Patsy. She was a good friend and a beautiful person inside and out. Always wearing that big smile that made everyone feel special. She was one of a very good kind and the world is worse off without her in it. Rest in peace Angel. You earned your wings. I will miss you.
