Can still hear his laugh. Paul was a true friend, genuine, caring, giving. We had some good times together. I can still taste his Mom's pancakes, like no other and delicious. I was blessed to have known him.

“ Cindy and family, I am so sorry for your loss. Jimmie and I loved Paul. He was so funny especially the time he put a cigarette in Poor Maggie's mouth and told her to run fast. She held on to that cigarette until Paul took it out of her mouth. This was over at Gene and Bobbie Bullard's house. He could also cook a good steak. May he Rest in Peace. Love to you all, Donna Gaspard.
