“ Even though we were not close and have not seen each other in a very long time, I have thought of you and your sister and brother often. I am praying for your family in their time of grief and I know that you are in a better place with your Dad and our Grandmother.

“ There will come a day when the tears of sorrow will softly flow into tears of remembrance...and your heart will begin healing itself...and grieving will be interrupted by episodes of joy...and you will hear the whisper of hope. There will come a day when you will welcome the tears of remembrance...as a sun shower of the soul...a turning of the tide...a promise of peace. There will come a day when you will...risk loving...go on believing...and treasure the tears of remembrance. All those sleeping in their graves will wake up and sing for joy. As the sparkling dew refreshes the earth, so the Lord will revive those who have long been dead."-Isa. 26:19.

“ Tina, Tom, and Paul's family: We are so sorry to hear about Paul, we had so much fun in high school and running the streets of Corsicana. We just found out about Paul today 08-15-08, and we are both in shock about this. We lost touch after we started moving around, but I have thought of Paul often and will always remember how much fun we had in school, on our double dates and hanging around Home Furniture and M-Evans. I'm sure Doyle is waiting at the gates to tell him all his new jokes he's heard, he sure couldn't be in better hands than with Bill and Doyle just like old times. We will keep The Null family in our thoughts and prayers
