So beautiful, so heart wrenching tho, to see pictures of so many of my aunts & uncles who have gone on home to be with our Lord & Savior. I already miss aunt Dean. She was one of God's angels here on earth & tho He has called her home we shall see her again in God's time. My heart is broken but I know she is in a much better place than we are. To her children, grandchildren & great grandchildren I know your pain & pray God gives you comfort and peace during one of the worst times we have to endure. I love you all, God bless.

Being Jamie's momma, I can tell you that Paula had become a much loved part of our family. I so enjoyed the times we got to sit down and talk and laugh over a cup of coffee, or in a hospital waiting room, or a kids birthday party. We take comfort in knowing that she is with her Lord and Saviour, and that this was just so long. Prayers for all the family, you all loved her so very well.

“ Today has been a rough day. One of those days where I just want to call you. It is so hard to fathom that I cannot just pick up he phone and call you anymore. You were the best mother in law that anyone could ever ask for. You were MOM and one of my best friends. I am so lucky that Mickey picked me to be in his life and he gave me the gift of you for almost 20 years. I so miss you and love you.

“ Such a sweet, caring and beautiful lady. Christina always talked about the wonderful memories yall cherish and her and her sweet little family loved you dearly. Prayers for Christina and family!

“ Dean's home was always open to everyone. Whether you were visiting or having a major water balloon fight! During one of those fights the guys started running through her house all wet and dirty. It didn't matter to her, she was happy they were enjoying their selves. That's the way she was. She loved life and those that were in it.

I know she will be missed and I wish I had words to bring comfort, but in a time like this it just hurts so bad. Lean on God, the precious memories He has given you, and the comfort of knowing that she is with Him.

*Love to you all,
