“ So sorry to hear of Peggy's passing. I'll always remember her in the choir in the heyday of Central Methodist Church as well as Mr. Allen's Secretary at Drane. And I will always appreciate Peggy and Jack's loyal friendship to my own parents. She was a fine Christian lady and heaven is a nicer place because of her presense there.

“ Our deepfelt sympathies to the family and friends of Peggy. May she rest in heavenly peace.

Geoffrey & Melba Young - April 30, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ Peggy was so dedicated to serving Friendship Class-each & every member-so thoughtful and pleaaasant that she continued in that challenging capacity when physically did not feel well. She would always greet you with a smile.If you observed closely, you could see a bit of strain in her smile. In response to encouragement, she would respond wih a slight smile and say, "Well I'm trying." What a beautiful spirit is now serving graciously in another role without the earthly pain. Thank you, Peggy, for your inspiration and Christian love for others, Mabel & Rex Carpenter.

“ Jack and Paula,
I was greatly saddened to hear of your Mother's passing. My deepest sympathy goes out to you and your family. She was truly a GREAT lady and Heaven is a brighter place today because she is there.

Shs's rejoicing now with Jesus, your Dad, my parents and all our loved ones who have gone on before us. We'll see them again one day soon.

I remember fondly our days on 38th Street and think of you often and wonder how my friends from Corsicana are doing.

I wish I could be with you there on Wednesday to celebrate the life of one of God's choicest Saints.

I will tell my sister, Lynda, of Peggy's passing and I'm sure she would want to be remembered to you also.

Best regards,
Larry Hutchinson
