“ My dear sweet cousin, Phyllis. So many treasured memories our families made growing up together. You were always so beautiful, inside and out, and I looked up to you. Through the years, when we called each other, you would always say, "Hi, Hon." God gave you a compassionate voice and heart. I "can only imagine" how your heart sang when Jesus came to get you on Tuesday and took you to your precious baby boy, Johnny, whom you have ached for all of these years. You got to spend many wonderful years here on earth with your loving and beloved son, David, Jr, and, now, you are reunited with Johnny. One of these days, we will all be together again, whether here, there or in the air. I am so sad for those left to grieve and miss you, but, so happy that you are free from earthly pain and suffering and have received your "gift from Jesus"...eternal life in heaven.

May God give special comfort to your loved ones.

Thank you for the love and memories.
