“ To the Meador girls,

Your mother was a good woman who worked diligently with your father to see that you girls had every opportunity to have more in every way than her generation had. May you girls bond even closer than ever at this time and reflect on the love that she and John L. gave and shared with each of you. Our thoughts, prayers and love are with all 4 of you at this time as we remember the good times that we had and shared with the Meador family. Your mother will be greatly missed.
