“ I knew Bubba back in the old Ennis days playing guitar with the guy's at fantasy trailer at lake tom sawyer. He was a good man and friend that I had lost contact with over the years. Rest in peace Bubba . When I see you again I will bring my '76 les paul and we will play again. You always wanted see if that strat would out do my les and you always won. So many friends and family are gone and it seems life goes on, no matter how hard it is. Memories are a God send.

“ As a member of the long list of those who knew and loved Bubba, I wish to extend my condolences and add my sadness to that of all those who will forever miss him.

I always knew Bubba to be a kind, generous, decent man who'd go out of his way to do things for others. His willingness to offer his talents to help others was shown by his participation in the Blues Busters' benefits that helped his friends get through some of their most distressful situations. No doubt there were an untold number other occasions when he expressed his generous nature.

Those of us who knew Bubba all have memories of the things he did and the things we did with him. Now, we all express to Sherry and Clay our grief in his passing, and we offer our support to them as they go on with their lives.

We'll never know why God took Bubba away so soon, but we can trust that He had good things in mind for Bubba, and those of us who knew him know that Bubba's comfortable today in God's presence. If we live the life we should live, we'll all see him again someday at another Blues Busters celebration. What a happy day that will be!

“ Dear "Hubba Bubba" -

*34 years have too quickly passed
From Friends to Family we changed fast
Thank you so much for all the help, the love, and the many, many laughs
Cherished in our thoughts and hearts, Brother
Our memories will forever last.*

*It's now your time to hang out with Our Lord
And all your Family who's gone before
You'll be happy & healthy & burnin' the strings on that guitar
So till we see each other again, Brother, beyond heaven's gate
Always know you're remembered and missed and loved from afar.*
