“ My deepest sympathy to the Taylor and Murray families. I haven't seen Ricky in many years, but do recall all the days spent with him in the hospital following his motorcyle accident. I will always remember his kind spirit and smile even through life's challenges. Please know that you are all in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I WILL ALWAYS REMEMBER THAT MOST OF THE TIME WHEN I SAW HIM, THAT HE WAS ALWAYS LAUGHING AND SMILING.

I KNOW HE IS IN A GOOD PLACE AND THAT HE IS WITH OTHER FAMILY MEMBERS NOW.

I WILL BE PRAYING FOR JOANN AND THE SON'S AND THEIR CHILDREN.

I AM AT WORK AND WILL NOT BE ATTENDING THE FUNERAL, BUT MY THOUGHTS WILL BE WITH YOU.

“ We played as kids, went to school as teenagers, and worked together as young men. So much time together growing up and now its been over 25 years since we have seen each other.
May peace be with Ricky and his family.

“ Ricky, I'll never forget the way that you and Craig Keeton helped me out after I lost Rudy. You have always been my son's friend and for that I'm thankful. I'm praying for your family and Reggie, too. Now you can rest in peace. After all of your struggles, you deserve it.
