“ Dear Chub & Charlie, I hope you don't mind my still calling you Chub as thats what we always called you as did your father. I am so sorry about your loss and he will be greatly missed. We had a lot of good times together especially when we went fishing. He was a good father to you both. I am so very happy that i got the pic's to your father before this happened as i know he really appreciated me doing so. He is at peace now and isn't suffering any more. He is a Guardian angel to us all now. Take care and would love to hear from you both once and awhile. God Bless .May God and the angels watch over you and your families and keep you all safe always. ~~ All my love always ~~ Aunt Margie

“ Charlie,

You know that you have been in our prayers for a long time, and even more so now. I know that you are relieved that your Dad's suffering has ended, but his loss is still painful.

You were a good son and you loved your father. It is through you that he still lives on. Keep the good times close to your heart and let the bad times pass into the night.

We love you.

“ Gone From My Sight

*I am standing upon the seashore.
A ship at my side spreads her white sails to the morning breeze and starts for the blue ocean.
She is an object of beauty and strength.
I stand and watch her until at length
she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sea and sky come to mingle with each other.
Then, someone at my side says;
"There, she is gone!"
"Gone where?"
Gone from my sight. That is all.
She is just as large in mast and hull and spar as she was when she left my side and she is just as able to bear her load of living freight to her destined port.
Her diminished size is in me, not in her.
And just at the moment when someone at my side says, "There, she is gone!"
There are other eyes watching her coming,
and other voices ready to take up the glad shout;
"Here she comes!"
And that is dying.*

“ To Terry, Michael and family.
There really is nothing anyone can say or do to make your pain go away. Only the comfort fo God and the passage of time can heal your pain. PLease know that I am thinking of you all and praying you all can rest easier knowing that your loved one is free from the pain and suffering he endured. HE is now looking down on you all from Heaven watching you and protecting you until you see each other again. Take care, Love Deniese

“ Charles & Brenda

I am so sorry for your loss. Please remember there is no suffering, pain or sorrow where he is now... He is up in Heaven looking down on the ones he loves and watching out for them as their guardian angel. Our sorrow is for ourselves in times like these, not for the one who is no longer suffering this world's pain.

We will continue to remember each of you in our thoughts and prayers in the very difficult days and weeks ahead
