“ Recall Rob from our days working together on the San Jacinto Texian newspaper.
He was always happy and jolly. I recalled he was very knowledgeable on many issues.

I had not seen Rob in over 30 years and randomly found out about his passing.

I am not surprised by the postings here.

Rest in Peace Rob!

“ I was very fortunate to have been able to get to know Rob and spend many days having great conversations and listening to him talk about ways to help every kid and ways to make my program better. He was always there when I called to get pictures done no matter the time or situation. He was someone I felt that was passionate about what he did and a very genuine person. He will truly be missed!!

“ Gentle man vs. gentleman. Rob was both - one in the same. His loving, caring ways were seen daily in his dedication to our students at Corsicana ISD. He always had a kind word to share and never turned away those in need. My family and I are blessed that his path crossed with ours. Rest easy my friend.
